RE: 19-4089, United States v. RaPower-3, et al
Dist/Ag docket: 2:15-CV-00828-DN-EJF

Dear Counsel:

Appellee's brief received in the subject case does not comply with the rules because:

Text may be printed on only one side of the paper. See Fed. R. App. P. 32(a)(1)(A).

There is no statement made on the front cover as to oral argument. See 10th Cir. R. 28.2(C).

You must file corrected hard copies of the brief.

The supplemental appendix that was submitted with the brief is in compliance with all relevant appellate rules and will be docketed as filed upon receipt of the corrected brief.

Corrections, however made, must be accompanied by proof of service on all other parties to the appeal.

The time to file a reply brief will run from the date of service of appellee's corrected brief.

If you fail to correct the stated deficiencies within 10 days of the date of this letter, the deficient brief and supplemental appendix will not be filed. In addition, the appellee will not be heard at oral argument unless the court grants permission. See Fed. R. App. P. 31(c).

Please contact this office if you have questions.

Sincerely,
