ORDER REGARDING PROTECTIVE
ORDER AND PENDING MOTIONS

Case No. 2:15-cv-828 DN

District Judge David Nuffer

Magistrate Judge Brooke Wells

The court has received and reviewed the United States' status report regarding protective order.¹ It appears the parties are close to agreeing upon a new stipulated protective order.

Accordingly, the court will provide the parties an additional ten (10) days from the date of this order to continue their negotiations. On or by November 3rd, the undersigned ORDERS the parties to file a new stipulated protective order.²

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED by this same date that the parties file a status report regarding the pending motions.³ There are numerous motions pending before the court that will become moot by the entry of a protective order. As such, the parties are directed to use their best efforts to resolve these motions and notify the court of their resolution.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

² In the event that the parties cannot reach an agreement they are to send an electronic version of their respective proposed protective order to chambers.

³ See e.g., docket nos. 55, 56, 57, 62, 65, 70, 83, 84, and 87.

DATED this 24 October 2016.
