<sup>3</sup> accounting?	<sup>3</sup> year you had sales of this much, you had expenses of
<sup>4</sup> A. Yes.	<sup>4</sup> this much, you had net income of this much. Those
<sup>5</sup> Q. Did you have a focus in your accounting	<sup>5</sup> were the basic ones. There are others, but those
<sup>6</sup> degree?	<sup>6</sup> were the ones that I was preparing at that time.
<sup>8</sup> Q. Okay.	<sup>8</sup> for your father. Was there a time that you stopped
<sup>9</sup> A. It was just a general accounting degree.	<sup>9</sup> working for your father?
<sup>10</sup> Q. Okay. And no other formal education after	<sup>10</sup> A. Yes. I I left his employ because he
<sup>12</sup> A. Just the continuing education that you	<sup>12</sup> get experience with a CPA firm. So I think it was
<sup>13</sup> have to take each year to maintain a license.	<sup>13</sup> it will be 1974, I guess I think around June
<sup>14</sup> Q. Okay.	<sup>14</sup> of 1974 I started work with a local accounting firm
<sup>15</sup> A. I did pass the CPA exam, and I am a	<sup>15</sup> called Johnson Erickson. And I worked with Johnson
<sup>16</sup> certified public accountant.	<sup>16</sup> Erickson for about two and a half years, and that's <sup>17</sup> Q. When did you become a CPA?	<sup>17</sup> where I got the experience to and then I passed
<sup>18</sup> A. In July of 1976.	<sup>18</sup> the CPA exam, got the experience. And it was one of
<sup>19</sup> Q. So it was a few years after you graduated	<sup>19</sup> the partners at Johnson Erickson that signed off for
<sup>21</sup> A. Yeah. You had to have two years'	<sup>21</sup> Q. Where did you go after Johnson and <sup>22</sup> experience, and so it took me the time to to pass
<sup>23</sup> the exam and get the experience I needed for a	A. After Johnson and Erickson, my father
<sup>24</sup> license.	<sup>24</sup> talked me into coming back. And so I actually
<sup>25</sup> Q. Okay. What was your first employment	<ul> <li>established my own firm as a sole proprietor. My dad</li> </ul>
11	13
<sup>2</sup> A. First first job I had was actually with	<sup>2</sup> separately. He had his practice, I had my practice.
<sup>3</sup> my father. My father had a bookkeeping and	<sup>3</sup> And so I I worked for about 13 years as a sole

<sup>8</sup> A. Bookkeeping is mostly just taking the	<sup>8</sup> types of services did you provide?
<sup>9</sup> information that a client gives you and entering it	<sup>9</sup> A. Basically, the same thing. I did tax
<sup>10</sup> into books. Back then it was not computerized, so it	<sup>10</sup> preparation. I did also tax consulting for clients.
<sup>11</sup> was general ledgers, sales ledgers, disbursement	<sup>11</sup> I did accounting. Because I was a certified public

<sup>2</sup> federal and state governments.	<sup>2</sup> say, "Does this company really owe you this much
<sup>4</sup> A. Yes. I with my clients I would	<sup>4</sup> Okay. I never did audits while I was a
<sup>5</sup> sometimes work with them on different things that	<sup>5</sup> sole proprietor. I did reviews and I did
<sup>6</sup> they were doing. I did several buy, selling	<sup>6</sup> compilations. And so I did issue opinions.
<sup>7</sup> businesses. I consulted with clients as far as what	<sup>7</sup> Sometimes those opinions would go to third parties,
<sup>8</sup> would happen if they sold their business, what the	<sup>8</sup> such as banks, for loans and things like that.
<sup>9</sup> tax consequences would be. If they did it this way,	<sup>9</sup> So that that would be where accounting
<sup>10</sup> if they did it that way, which would be the best way	<sup>10</sup> would differ from bookkeeping.
<sup>11</sup> for them to to do that. So I guess maybe tax	<sup>11</sup> Q. Why is it necessary to verify a company's
<sup>13</sup> the tax consequences of whatever it was they were	<sup>13</sup> A. It depended on the user. Sometimes the
<sup>14</sup> they were doing. Depending on the clients	<sup>14</sup> users would ask for specific things. If they were
<sup>15</sup> different clients had different needs. So I was	<sup>15</sup> planning to make a loan to the client, they'd want
<sup>16</sup> involved with business sale and acquisition. I was	<sup>16</sup> to they are going to be relying on the financial
<sup>17</sup> involved with like-kind exchanges, capital gains,	<sup>17</sup> statements to see what condition the company is in,
<sup>18</sup> just sale of assets, those types of things.	<sup>18</sup> and so they are going to want to know somebody
<sup>19</sup> Q. Okay. And then you mentioned a portion of	<sup>19</sup> besides the company looked at this and that they can

A. Yes. Accounting involves bookkeeping, but	<sup>21</sup> going to be making decisions based on what those
<sup>22</sup> it also involved taking it a little further. Some	<sup>22</sup> financial statements say.
<ol> <li>reviews and audits.</li> <li>Compilation is basically where we just</li> </ol>	<ul> <li>A. It I guess the answer to that is yes</li> <li>and no, because financial statements, according to</li> </ul>
<sup>3</sup> take the taxpayer or the client's information, put	<sup>3</sup> generally-accepted account principles, can differ

<ul> <li><sup>7</sup> position. And then we would issue an opinion, which</li> </ul>	<sup>7</sup> are allowed under tax, and vice versa. Some of the
<sup>8</sup> would say, basically, "We've compiled these financial	<sup>8</sup> things that are allowed under tax are not allowed
<sup>9</sup> statements and, based on our compilation, they're	<sup>9</sup> under financial statements. So they can differ, yes.
<sup>10</sup> correct."	<sup>10</sup> Q. Do you have experience in determining when
<sup>13</sup> For example, reconcile the bank account and review	<sup>13</sup> Q. Okay. We are going to come back to that.
<sup>14</sup> the bank statement. Possibly review the accounts	<sup>14</sup> All right. After you were a sole
