TO ALL:

Today, of course, is tax filing deadline day. Hope every one of you has the success as expected from our RaPower3 Tax Benefit program.

For those of you using Bryan Bolander, he has been swamped by so many of you wanting him to do your taxes. He has done many, but there just was not enough time to do everyone's taxes by today. Therefore, he will file an extension for those affected. Now, extensions are done all the time. They are automatic. It gives taxpayers an additional six months to file their taxes. Mr. Bolander should only take a couple of weeks for the extensions. He won't take the full six months.

What is the downside of an extension? There is none except for the interest that would be assessed if you owe taxes. However, Mr. Bolander only filed extensions for those who are getting refunds. Therefore, no interest should be assessed and there should only be a short delay in getting your refund.

BTW, things are still progressing nicely at the manufacturing plant.
