Re: United States v. RaPower-3, IAS, et al., Case No. 2:15CV000828
Request for Information

Dear Mr. Klein:

The information provided by this letter and the attached exhibits is in response to your letter of December 18, 2018, as modified by your subsequent email of December 18, 2018. The responses are provided to the best of my knowledge and belief. By providing this information, no waiver of the attorney client privilege is made as to any information not expressly provided by this letter or the attached exhibits. The attorney client privilege is reserved as to all other information and matters, including information that may be related to the information presented in this response.

1. Payments to Nelson Snuffer. Pursuant ¶9 of the Receivership Order, all prior directors, officers, managers, employees, attorneys, and other agents of RaPower-3 and IAS were dismissed effective October 31, 2018. Under ¶ 3, I have exclusive authority to act on behalf of RaPower-3 and IAS. In light of that, I renew-and narrow-my request for information about all payments made to Nelson Snuffer by RaPower-3 and/or IAS. I want to know what payments RaPower-3 or IAS made to Nelson Snuffer. If you do not have this information for all prior time periods, I am requesting the information that you do have. If you continue to assert that I am not entitled to this information - as the sole authorized representative of RaPower-3 and IAS-please so indicate in writing.

Response: As stated above, no waiver of the attorney client privilege is made as to any information not expressly provided by this letter or the attached exhibits. The attorney client privilege is reserved as to all other information and matters, including information that may be related to the information presented in this response or the attached exhibits.

Attached, as Exhibit "M", is a tabulation of payments received from IAS, and Exhibit "N", which is a tabulation of payments received from RaPower-3, both beginning with January 1, 2009. These tabulations were produced by our office manager, and, to the best of my knowledge, were derived from the best information available.

Attached, as Exhibit "O", is a copy of checks issued by RaPower-3, beginning in June 2017, which I understand are not included in the tabulation presented in Exhibit "N". It is my understanding that these checks are primarily for fees related to the US v. RaPower-3 et al. lawsuit.

2. Engagement Agreements. I am requesting copies of all engagement agreements that were signed on behalf of RaPower-3 or IAS. If you continue to assert that I am not entitled to agreements to which RaPower-3 or IAS were parties, please so indicate in writing.

Response: As stated above, no waiver of the attorney client privilege is made as to any information not expressly provided by this letter or the attached exhibits. The attorney client privilege is reserved as to all other information and matters, including information that may be related to the information presented in this response or the attached exhibits.

To the best of my knowledge and recollection, there have been no written engagement agreements signed on behalf of RaPower-3 or IAS, with Nelson Snuffer Dahle & Poulsen, P.C. ("NSDP") since January 1, 2009. Due to an attorney-client relationship of IAS and Mr. Johnson with NSDP of more than 20 years, legal services have generally been performed based upon a verbal request and performed on an hourly rate basis.

I believe that the foregoing is fully responsive to your follow-up requests. If you have any questions regarding the foregoing, please feel free to contact me. We appreciate your cooperation.

Sincerely,

NELSON SNUFFER DAHLE & POULSEN, P.C.
