II. LIST ALL RELATED OR PRIOR RELATED APPEALS IN THIS COURT WITH APPROPRIATE CITATION(S). If none, please so state.

None, yet.

III. GIVE A BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE NATURE OF THE UNDERLYING CASE AND RESULT BELOW.

This case involves an alleged fraudulent tax scheme. Defendants were accused of promoting an unlawful tax scheme under 26 U.S.C. 6700, which creates a penalty for a person who 1) organizes or sells any plan or arrangement involving taxes and 2) makes or furnishes, or causes another to make or furnish, a statement connecting the allowability of a tax benefit with participating in the plan or arrangement, which statement the person knows or has reason to know is false or fraudulent as to any material matter.

Trial was held before Judge David Nuffer in Salt Lake City, Utah, over twelve days from April to June, 2018. At the conclusion of trial, on June 22, 2018, the court made partial findings of fact from the bench and entered an initial order (ECF Doc. No. 413) granting partial injunctive relief.

On June 22, 2018, the United States filed a Motion to Freeze Assets and Appoint a Receiver (ECF Doc. No. 414). Defendants responded to the motion on July 2, 2018 (ECF Doc. No. 423). Because of Defendants' concern that a receiver would immediately be appointed and based on language in the proposed order appointing a receiver that the right to appeal the district court's orders and judgments would be compromised by the receivership, Defendant RaPower-3, LLC filed for bankruptcy protection under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (ECF Doc. No. 424).

Following proceedings in the Bankruptcy Court and a stipulation to withdraw the reference and dismiss the bankruptcy, on August 22, 2018, the bankruptcy case was dismissed and the order freezing assets and appointing a receiver, with the rights to appeal preserved for Defendants, was entered. (ECF Doc. No. 443 and 444).

An interlocutory appeal challenging the appointment of a receiver was timely filed by Defendants on August 27, 2018 (ECF Doc. No. 445).

IV. IDENTIFY TO THE BEST OF YOUR ABILITY AT THIS STAGE OF THE PROCEEDINGS, THE ISSUES TO BE RAISED IN THIS APPEAL.

- A. Whether the district court erred in ordering the appointment of a receiver where there is no evidence of wrongdoing or dissipation of assets by any Defendant, certainly no proof of wrongdoing or dissipation of assets by the individual defendants. The only proof at trial was that revenue was generated from the sale of solar lenses that Defendants understood qualified for a tax credit based on tax advice from lawyers and accountants.
- B. Whether the district court erred in ordering the appointment of a receiver when it has expressly stated that it cannot prohibit Defendants from selling solar lenses; it can only prevent Defendants from representing that the purchase of solar lenses qualifies the purchasers to receive tax benefits.
- C. Whether the district court erred in ordering the appointment of a receiver where there is no evidence Defendants have failed to comply with court orders following entry of the district court's findings and injunction.
- D. Whether the district court erred in finding the legal requirements for appointment of a receiver have been met, in particular the requirements for irreparable harm and injury to Defendants outweighs threatened (ongoing) harm to Plaintiff.

V. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION IN CRIMINAL APPEALS.

A. Does this appeal involve review under 18 U.S.C. § 3742(a) or (b) of the sentence imposed? NO.

B. If the answer to A (immediately above) is yes, does the defendant also challenge the judgment of conviction? _____

C. Describe the sentence imposed. _____

D. Was the sentence imposed after a plea of guilty? _____

E. If the answer to D (immediately above) is yes, did the plea agreement include a waiver of appeal and/or collateral challenges?

F. Is defendant on probation or at liberty pending appeal? _____

G. If the defendant is incarcerated, what is the anticipated release date if the judgment of conviction is fully executed?

H. Does this appeal involve the November 1, 2014 retroactive amendments to §§ 2D1.1 and 2D1.11 of the U.S. Sentencing Commission's Guidelines Manual, which reduced offense levels for certain drug trafficking offenses?

NOTE: In the event expedited review is requested and a motion to that effect is filed, the defendant shall consider whether a transcript of any portion of the trial court proceedings is necessary for the appeal. Necessary transcripts must be ordered by completing and delivering the transcript order form to the Clerk of the district court with a copy filed in the court of appeals.

This order GRANTS the United States’ second motion to freeze Defendants’ assets and appoint a receiver, ECF Doc. No. 414, filed June 22, 2018.

On November 23, 2015, the United States filed its complaint against Defendants, seeking to enjoin Defendants from organizing, promoting, and selling the “solar energy scheme” that they have been promoting since on or before 2010.¹ The United States also seeks disgorgement of Defendants’ ill-gotten gains from the promotion of their abusive tax scheme.²

The United States previously moved for an order freezing the assets of Defendants Neldon Johnson, RaPower-3, and IAS’s assets and for an order appointing a receiver on

² ECF Doc. No. 2 and ECF Doc. No. 35 ¶ 1(a).

November 17, 2017.³ On March 2, 2018, the United States’ motion was denied without prejudice in part because the United States relied upon the facts set forth in its motion for partial summary judgment including the “disputed material facts as to Defendants’ knowledge at the time they made certain statements.”⁴ The Motion for Partial Summary Judgement was also denied in that same order.⁵ Trial is now completed. The Court made extensive findings on the record at the end of trial;⁶ intends to enter detailed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law including a disgorgement order; and has already entered an interim injunction based on summary findings⁷ and a preservation order.⁸ On the basis of the evidence adduced at trial, as laid out below, the United States’ motion is granted.

I. Statement of Facts 3

II. The injunctive relief requested by the United States – in the form of an asset freeze and appointment of a receiver – is necessary or appropriate to enforce the Internal Revenue Laws.. 13

 A. The United States has succeeded on the merits. 15

 B. The United States will suffer irreparable injury if an order granting the asset freeze and appointing a receiver is not issued. 16

 C. The balance of harm to the United States in not issuing the injunctive relief outweighs the harm to be caused to Defendants by issuing the requested relief. 18

 D. An injunction will benefit, not disserve, the public interest. 19

 E. A receiver is necessary or appropriate to effect the asset freeze. 20

III. Order 26

I. Statement of Facts

1. Neldon Johnson is and has been the manager, and a direct and indirect owner of, RaPower-3, LLC, International Automated Systems, Inc. and LTB1, LLC (among other entities). He is the sole decision-maker for each entity.⁹

2. Johnson claims to have invented certain solar energy technology that involves solar thermal lenses placed in arrays on towers.¹⁰

3. In or around 2006 through 2008, Johnson directed IAS to erect, at most, 19 towers on “the R&D Site” near Delta, Utah, in Millard County.¹¹

4. Johnson also directed that IAS install solar lenses in those towers.¹²

5. To make money from this purported solar energy technology, Johnson decided to sell a component of the purported technology: the solar lenses.¹³

6. Johnson recognized that his strength was not in sales, so he directed that IAS use independent sales representatives to sell lenses.¹⁴

7. Johnson drafted some promotional materials to describe the arrangement, “IAUS Solar Unit Purchase Overview” and IAS “Solar Equipment Purchase.”¹⁵

8. Johnson showed IAS salespeople these descriptive materials about the structure of the transaction, the purported technology, and the federal tax benefits that Johnson said a customer could lawfully claim when he bought a lens from IAS.¹⁶

9. He told IAS’s initial salespeople what he understood the tax laws to mean.¹⁷

10. R. Gregory Shepard has been an IAS shareholder since the mid-1990s.¹⁸ He became one of IAS’s initial salespeople in or around September 2005, and began selling solar lenses.¹⁹

11. Shepard’s information about Johnson’s purported solar energy technology came from Johnson or members of Johnson’s family, and Shepard’s own observations on his site visits over the years.²⁰

12. Johnson told Shepard that a depreciation deduction and the solar energy tax credit are related to the sale of lenses.²¹

13. Johnson created, owns, and controls at least three entities that sell or have sold solar lenses: SOLCO I,²² XSun Energy,²³ and RaPower-3, LLC.²⁴ SOLCO I and XSun Energy are not defendants in this action.

14. Johnson created RaPower-3 in 2010. He is its manager and the sole decision-maker for the company.²⁵

15. Once formed, RaPower-3, rather than IAS, sold solar lenses to individuals.²⁶

16. RaPower-3's only business activity is selling solar lenses through a multi-level marketing (otherwise known as "network marketing") approach to increase sales.²⁷

17. Selling lenses through RaPower-3 gave Johnson "much needed revenue" to continue his operations.²⁸

18. Johnson directed RaPower-3 to create a site online (<https://rapower3.net>) where a customer can access and sign a contract to buy lenses and sign other transaction documents that Johnson provides (described below).²⁹

19. Among other things, Shepard created the website www.rapower3.com³⁰ and moderates an online discussion board called “IAUS & RaPower[-]3 Forum.”³¹

20. Shepard gets paid for his work with RaPower-3 through his company, Shepard Global.³²

21. On the RaPower-3 website, Shepard describes the solar energy technology (including the solar lenses) and the transactions underpinning the solar energy scheme, promotes sales, and provides links to the website with the transaction documents.³³ Shepard also uses the IAUS and RaPower-3 Forum and emails to communicate with RaPower-3 members and prospective members.³⁴

22. Shepard also organizes groups of people to visit the R&D Site, the site where component parts of the purported solar technology system are manufactured (the “Manufacturing Facility”), and the site on a large field with a few semi-constructed component parts (the “Construction Site”).³⁵

24. From 2009 through 2016, RaPower-3 had received at least $25,874,066 from its role in the solar energy scheme.³⁷

25. From 2008 through 2016, IAS has received at least $5,438,089 from its role in the solar energy scheme.³⁸

30. From 2008 through 2016, Shepard received $702,001 from his role in the solar energy scheme.⁴²

31. While selling the solar lenses, Defendants told customers they could buy “lenses” and claim tax benefits.⁴³

32. While they sold solar lenses and organized efforts to sell solar lenses, Defendants told their customers that if they bought a solar lens and signed the transaction documents Defendants provide, their customers were in the “trade or business” of “leasing” solar lenses.⁴⁴

We are buying lenses and leasing them – THAT is our business – LEASING – NOT producing energy ...” Pl. Ex. 32.

34. Defendants told customers that IAS, RaPower-3, or LTB “placed in service” or “put into service” their solar lenses in the year that the customers purchased the lenses.⁴⁶

35. Starting in 2010, RaPower-3 sold lenses for a price of $3,500 per lens.⁴⁷ Johnson determined the price that RaPower-3 would charge for the lenses.

36. Customers started purchasing lenses via the internet at rapower.net. On that site, a potential customer enters the number of lenses he wishes to purchase, and the website “figures” the amount the customer owes and the amount of the customer’s down payment.⁴⁸

37. The site also provides all transaction documents for customers to sign electronically: an Equipment Purchase Agreement, an Operations & Maintenance Agreement (“O&M”), and, at times in the past, a bonus contract.⁴⁹

39. Over the years, Defendants told customers about Johnson's purported solar energy technology and the progress being made by Defendants.⁵¹ Defendants emphasized progress being made despite their knowledge that the system was not up and running.⁵²

40. From the start, Defendants have told their customers that they can "zero out" their federal income tax liability by buying enough solar lenses and claiming both a depreciation deduction and solar energy tax credit for the lenses.⁵³

41. Defendants knew that when they made statements to customers and prospective customers about the tax benefits and their purported solar lens leasing "trade or business," that the only way a customer has ever "made money" from buying a lens is from the tax benefits; no customer has earned money from rental income or income from a bonus contract.⁵⁴

44. Defendants’ customers have been audited by the IRS for claiming the tax benefits Defendants promote.⁵⁷

II. The injunctive relief requested by the United States – in the form of an asset freeze and appointment of a receiver – is necessary or appropriate to enforce the Internal Revenue Laws.

Under 26 U.S.C. § 7402, this Court has the authority to impose an asset freeze and appoint a receiver to take control of Defendants IAS and RaPower-3's assets and business operations..⁶⁹ Section 7402(a) encompasses a broad range of powers necessary to compel ⁶⁹ Under 26 U.S.C. § 7402\(a\), the district courts "shall have jurisdiction to make and issue in civil actions, writs and orders of injunction, [] orders appointing receivers, and such other orders and processes, and to render such judgments and decrees as may be necessary or appropriate for the enforcement of the internal revenue laws. The remedies hereby provided are in addition to and not exclusive of any and all other remedies of the United States in such courts or otherwise to enforce such laws."

compliance with the tax laws.⁷⁰ Courts have exercised this broad authority under § 7402(a) in a variety of contexts, including ordering disgorgement of ill-gotten gains against a tax return preparer engaged in fraudulent return preparation,⁷¹ appointing receivers to assist in collection of federal tax liabilities or otherwise ensure compliance with the internal revenue laws,⁷² and freezing a defendant's assets.⁷³ The statute alone provides sufficient authority to issue an injunctive order freezing Defendants' assets.

Examination of the typical factors in imposing equitable relief before final adjudication is not necessary but demonstrates the propriety – and necessity – of this action. In the Tenth Circuit, a party seeking a preliminary injunction must show 1) that there exists a substantial likelihood that the movant will prevail on the merits; 2) that the movant will suffer irreparable injury unless the injunction issues; 3) that the threatened injury to the movant outweighs whatever damage the proposed injunction may cause the opposing party; and 4) that the injunction would not be adverse to the public interest.⁷⁴ The Court finds that while 26 U.S.C. § 7402(a) provides explicit authority for the relief requested, the United States, as the moving party, also meets its burden under the preliminary injunction standard for the relief requested.⁷⁵

A. The United States has succeeded on the merits.

For injunctive relief to be warranted under § 7408, the United States must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that (1) Defendants organized an entity, plan, or arrangement; (2) Defendants made false or fraudulent statements concerning the tax benefits to be derived from the entity, plan or arrangement; (3) Defendants knew or had reason to know those statements were false or fraudulent; (4) the false or fraudulent statements pertained to a material matter; and (5) an injunction is necessary to prevent recurrence of this conduct. Alternatively, for injunctive relief to be warranted under § 7402, the United States must prove that an injunction is necessary or appropriate to enforce the internal revenue laws.⁷⁶ As the Court has found, the United States has proven that it is entitled to an injunction under 26 U.S.C. §§ 7402 and/or 7408. The evidence adduced at trial shows that Defendants organized the solar energy scheme;⁷⁷ that Defendants made false or fraudulent statements about the tax benefits to be obtained from purchasing a solar lens;⁷⁸ and that Defendants knew or had reason to know that their statements were false or fraudulent pertaining to a material matter,⁷⁹ namely the tax benefits of depreciation and solar energy tax credits. Further, Defendants have testified that they have no intention of ceasing their activity related to and sales of solar lenses. An injunction is necessary to prevent recurrence of Defendants' conduct.

Disgorgement is also necessary or appropriate to enforce the internal revenue laws. Defendants profited from their scheme in the millions of dollars through money from the United States Treasury that was funneled through their customers. Defendants should not be permitted to retain their ill-gotten gains. The United States has shown that a reasonable approximation of their proceeds is at least $50,025,480. This Court has found that an injunction will issue and that disgorgement will be ordered. Thus, the United States has already succeeded on the merits.

B. The United States will suffer irreparable injury if an order granting the asset freeze and appointing a receiver is not issued.

The United States Treasury has already been greatly harmed by Defendants' scheme. Defendants continue to sell lenses to this day, and Defendants' customers continue to claim the tax benefits related to those lenses. If the injunctive relief requested is not granted, Defendants will have full unfettered access to the funds illicitly obtained to the detriment of the United States.⁸⁰ Defendants' entire scheme was geared to "zero-out" a customer's tax liability. Defendants requested customers make a down payment for their solar lenses of $1,050 per lens. The customers paid this with a $105 "upfront fee" and were asked to pay the remaining amount after they received their tax refunds.⁸¹ Defendants funded their entire scheme through funds that were "redirected" or diverted from the United States Treasury to their pockets though the money first went through the hands of their customers. The United States will not be able to recover all of the improper refunds paid to Defendants' customers. Defendants have been dissipating assets since they learned of the criminal investigation by the Internal Revenue Service no later than June of 2012⁸² and throughout the course of this litigation.⁸³ Defendants have moved assets into foreign jurisdictions⁸⁴ and both Johnson⁸⁵ and Shepard⁸⁶ have taken steps to frustrate the collection of a potential disgorgement award. Without the relief requested, Defendants will continue in their attempt to frustrate the collection of any disgorgement this Court may award and thus irreparably injure the United States.

C. The balance of harm to the United States in not issuing the injunctive relief outweighs the harm to be caused to Defendants by issuing the requested relief.

In evaluating this factor, courts look to whether the freeze itself will cause such disruption of defendants' legitimate business affairs that the assets would be destroyed.⁸⁷ Here, Defendants have no legitimate business. Defendants' solar energy scheme is an abusive tax scheme and not a legitimate business. Defendants do not operate the solar energy scheme – or ⁸⁴ Johnson Dep., vol. 2, 37:22 – 38:5; Neldon Johnson assigned the rights to six patents to Black Night Enterprises, Inc., #6 Solomon's Arcade, Main Street, Charleston, Saint Kitts and Nevis (see USPTO Patent Assignment Search, search by assignee name: "Black Night"). The assignments were executed between April 2013 and June 2015 and recorded on June 16, 2015. See USPTO assignment search for Neldon Johnson, <https://assignment.uspto.gov/patent/index.html#/patent/search/result?id=neldon%20johnson&type=patAssignorName>.

⁸⁵ For example, Neldon Johnson has transferred patents to Nevis and has ownership interests in multiple foreign entities, supra. Further, Neldon Johnson testified that if a "government agency caus[ed] problems," then certain assets would revert back to the foreign company. Trial Tr. 2175:4-16. Johnson has structured his affairs in a convoluted manner and in such a way as to obstruct the United States' discovery of ownership interests and assets. E.g., ECF Doc. No. 53, [ECF Doc. Permitting Defendants more time to engage in their solar energy scheme and moving assets while the case has been submitted and decision and judgment is forthcoming will only cause further injury to the United States.

any of the entities involved in the solar energy scheme – in a businesslike manner. Defendants do not have any revenue or income aside from the sale of solar lenses. There is no harm to Defendants in prohibiting them from using ill-gotten gains to fund their technology experimentation and their personal expenses, including offshore arrangements that will be difficult to collect against. The United States however, and the taxpaying public, will continue to be harmed by the probable dissipation of Defendants’ assets. The United States has a compelling interest in enforcing the tax laws and ensuring that persons promoting abusive tax schemes do not profit from their unlawful behavior.⁸⁸ As such, the balance of harms weighs in favor of the United States and for relief to be granted.⁸⁹

D. An injunction will benefit, not disserve, the public interest.

The public interest is served by issuing the injunctive relief requested by the United States. The public has an interest in enforcement of the tax laws.⁹⁰ Taxpayers have an interest in being protected from suffering the results of other taxpayers improper tax benefits. Defendants’ activities do a disservice to the taxpaying public, undermining confidence in the fair administration of the internal revenue laws, and have cost the United States’ Treasury over $14 million. Defendants should not be permitted to profit from their illicit activities. The public interest is also served in ensuring that Defendants do not dissipate assets that can be used to satisfy any disgorgement award this Court may order or otherwise compensate those harmed by Defendants' abusive tax scheme.⁹¹

E. A receiver is necessary or appropriate to effect the asset freeze.

This Court has explicit statutory authority to appoint a receiver pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 7402\(a\) as may be necessary or appropriate for the enforcement of the internal revenue laws.⁹² Second, the appointment of a receiver is authorized by the inherent equitable power of a federal court.⁹³ The Court finds that the appointment of a receiver is necessary and appropriate in this case. Defendants' solar energy tax scheme involves false or fraudulent statements and the possible dissipation of assets.⁹⁴ Given Defendants' reluctance to cooperate in discovery regarding assets and ownership structure⁹⁵, a receiver is necessary to enforce the internal revenue

The Court may appoint from that list or otherwise. The proposed order should include all powers conferred upon a receiver under the provisions of 28 U.S.C. §§ 754, 959 and 1692, Fed. R. Civ. 9. This Court shall retain jurisdiction over any action filed against the Receiver or Retained Personnel based upon acts or omissions committed in their representative capacities.

10. Within 60 days from the entry of the order appointing the Receiver, the Receiver shall file and serve an accounting of the Receivership Estate, reflecting (to the best of the Receiver’s knowledge) the existence, value, and location of all Receivership Property, and of the extent of liabilities, both those claimed to exist by others and those the Receiver believes to be legal obligations of the Receivership Estates. The Receiver shall also detail his/her efforts in

11. The Receiver's fees shall be paid by the Receivership Defendants or from the Receivership Estates upon approval of the Court, with prior notice and opportunity for the United States to respond to any fee application.

12. The Receiver shall distribute the estate to:

- a. First Priority: The Internal Revenue Service, up to $14,207,517. This payment shall be paid in full before any distributions to the Second Priority claims.

Payments to claimants shall be made on a pro rata basis of the amount paid by the claimant to Defendants less all amounts received by the claimant from Defendants.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

RAPOWER-3, LLC, INTERNATIONAL
AUTOMATED SYSTEMS, INC., LTB1,
LLC, R. GREGORY SHEPARD, NELDON
JOHNSON, and ROGER FREEBORN,

Defendants.

INITIAL ORDER AND INJUNCTION AFTER TRIAL

Case No. 2:15-cv-00828 DN-EJF

District Judge David Nuffer

Magistrate Judge Evelyn J. Furse

This is an interim order for partial injunctive relief entered after trial, but before entry of a complete set of findings and conclusions which will support much broader relief.

Defendants Neldon Johnson, R. Gregory Shepard, and former defendant Roger Freeborn were each involved in the organization of, and participated in sales of interests in, the plan or arrangement, and the plan or arrangement that constitutes this fraudulent tax scheme.

Defendants made statements regarding allowability of tax deductions and credits from participation in the plan or arrangement; told prospective customers, and customers, about the structure of the transactions; and told them about Johnson's solar energy technology. They sold solar lenses by emphasizing the purported tax benefits but knew or had reason to know that their statements were false or fraudulent as to material matters, for the following reasons:

- a. Johnson's purported solar energy technology did not work, and would not work to generate commercially viable electricity or other energy;

- b. the only way a customer has “made money” from buying a lens is from the purported tax benefits;
- c. no customer has been paid rental income generated from the use of his lens to generate power bought by a third-party purchaser; and
- d. no customer has been paid a bonus;
- e. customers are not required to pay the full down payment, much less the full purchase price for a lens; and
- f. advice from independent professionals did not support Defendants claims about tax benefits.

Defendants knew, or had reason to know:

- a. that Johnson, and not the customers, controlled the customers’ purported “solar lens leasing businesses”;
- b. that the customers do not have special expertise or prior experience in the solar lens leasing business;
- c. that their customers were not in a “trade or business”;
- d. that the lenses were not “placed in service”;
- e. that the lenses were not held for production of income from the lenses;
- f. that that the full “purchase” price of the lenses was not at risk in the year a customer signed transaction documents;

- g. that their customers were not allowed to deduct their purported expenses related to the solar lenses against their active income or use the credit to reduce their tax liability on active income;
- h. that the IRS disallowed their customers' depreciation deductions and solar energy tax credits and that the customers were not entitled to depreciation deductions and solar energy tax credits;
- i. that the Oregon Tax Court rejected their customers' depreciation deductions and solar energy tax credits.

In connection with sales to customers, Defendants made gross valuation overstatements as to the value of the solar lenses.

Defendants knew, or had reason to know, that their statements were false or fraudulent. Their claims of reliance on legal advice fails. Their claimed reliance was not reasonable. The advice documents do not support the Defendants' position.

An injunction and other equitable relief are necessary and appropriate to enforce the internal revenue laws of the United States. At this early point, partial relief is ordered to prevent ongoing and significant fraud.

ORDER

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this notice be immediately placed on www.rapower3.com and www.rapower3.net and www.iaus.com and any other site controlled by Defendants which is used in relation to marketing of lenses:

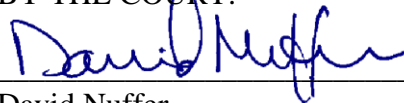

THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH in U.S. v. RaPower-3, LLC., et al., Case No., 2:15 cv 828, has determined that tax information provided by Neldon Johnson, RaPower-3, LLC, International Automated Systems (IAUS), XSun Energy, LLC, SOLCO I LLC, Greg Shepard, and others associated with them regarding solar energy lenses is false. Tax information related to solar energy lenses must not appear on this site until further order of the court.

Defendants shall file a Declaration of Compliance, attesting that all tax related information has been removed from the websites and attaching copies of the web pages, on or before Friday June 29, 2018.

In Case No. 2:18-cv-00608-DN, the United States filed a motion to withdraw the reference¹ of Bankr. No. 18-bk-24865 (Chapter 11) due to this court's familiarity with the facts underlying the dispute between the United States and RaPower-3, LLC and other defendants in Case No. 2:15-cv-00828 DN. In In re: RAPOWER-3, LLC, Bankr. No. 18-bk-24865 (Chapter 11), the United States moved to dismiss RaPower-3's bankruptcy petition, with findings that the filing was in bad faith, or for alternative relief.⁴ RaPower-3's response disavowed bad faith in filing its petition but agreeing that the petition should be dismissed.⁵ The United States replied insisting that dismissal with prejudice and adverse findings is appropriate.⁶ RaPower-3 filed its own motion to dismiss, insisting that these findings should not be made.⁷

Deep familiarity with the facts of this case, after extensive motion practice and bench trial, with numerous exhibits; careful review of proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law; availability of transcripts of trial; timing of the filing which has prevented entry of final orders including a receivership order; review of the bankruptcy case filings; and review of papers on these motions shows that the filing was clearly in bad faith and that dismissal of the bankruptcy case should be with prejudice to any filing within 180 days.⁸ The summary in pages 6-13 of the
