Erin,

We have met together as counsel and clients and discussed your letter in detail. Given the seriousness of the motion and the claims made in your letter, we would like a little more time to consider the consequences of making a decision on the Rule 11 letter. Originally, you made a deadline to respond as of today. We would like to have a little more time to discuss the issue among ourselves and with our clients.

Can we have until Monday to respond to your letter?

Steven Paul
